Success Magazine: How long have you been in the business?

Diane Iacobelli: I have been involved in the restaurant industry for over thirty years. My first position was as a server at Cornell's Restaurant in Schenectady. That was the beginning of my love for the public and the business. Back in the late seventies I opened Joshua's on Union St., in Schenectady, NY. It was a lot of work, but also a very exciting time for me. It allowed me to expand on my experience.

SM: What does La Stella have to offer?

DI: We offer an avenue to entertain the public by organizing several dinner shows and concerts throughout the year in the Northeast. We also offer assistance for coordinating events for private industry and corporate functions. We can assist you with a small intimate party at your home or office or can organize a function that would suit your needs at any venue of your choosing.

SM: What is the advantage of using La Stella?

DI: We can make your life a lot easier in this busy and fast-paced world.

By making a phone call your entire event can be planned through one contact. We can do as little or as much of the work as you choose. We can oversee every detail from invitations and decorations to clean-up. Our presentation of your event will be an expression of a well thought out event without any detail being overlooked.

SM: What do you have planned for the future?

DI: We have already planned several dinner shows for the area. February 18, 2011 we had an extremely successful night at Michael's Banquet House in Latham, NY with the world famous Duprees. We are producing a Christmas show at The Key Hall at Proctor's with the Duprees for December 3rd, 2011. We recently teamed up with Angelo Mazzone at the Glen Sanders Mansion to start "The Supper Club at The Mansion," which will be a series of intimate dinner shows held in the Grand Salon at the Glen Sanders Mansion throughout the year.

SM: What kind of entertainment will you have?

DI: It will vary with all genres of music and entertainment.

Our dinner show for "The Supper Club at The Mansion" on May 20th, 2011 will be "A Night With Sammy Davis, Jr" featuring the world renowned Louie Velez. We are producing a Retro 70's Dance Party at the Glen Sanders Mansion which will be held on April 22, 2011. We will bring back the days of disco with a slide presentation from Joshua's and Nick's Sneaky Pete's at the Latham Circle. Our MC for the evening will be the famous Sal Cannavo with music provided by The Grand Central Station Band and the famed DJ Brian McCarthy. Kim Marsh will perform her tribute to Tina Turner. A wonderful retro buffet from 8-10pm will be served. This will be held to help raise money for The Jack Falvo III Foundation and Jack's Place.
